DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 34-37, 39 are considered non-statutory. A desktop application is a software application hence the means claimed is not a hardware means(not referring to computer components) but rather a software means. Neither the specification nor the diagrams show the structural means. The claimed subject matter is considered non-statutory because the desktop application is considered a data structure. Data structures not claimed as embodied in a computer readable medium are descriptive material per se.

Claim 38 is rejected because it refers to a claim that is subject to a 101 rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-4, 6-15, 18-39 allowed.
